CONSTITUTION OF IMPROV CLUB

Section 1 - the name of this organization is Improv Club

Section 2 - the mission of this organization is to provide quality improvisational comedy shows for Kettering students and to give students a chance to develop their improvisational skills.

Article 2 - Membership

Section 1 – auditions for new members will be held at the beginning of each term

Section 2 - membership is open to all students currently enrolled at Kettering University

Section 3 – current members select new members from all those who auditioned

Section 3 – members are required to attend all practices and shows unless excused by the President or the majority of the organization.

Article 3 – Officers

Section 1 – Improv Club has the following officers

- President - serves as the chairperson for the organization. The President is also responsible for scheduling auditions at the beginning of each term.
- Vice President - serves as President in his/her absence.
- Treasurer - responsible for submitting a budget and requesting funds, if necessary

Section 2 – any current member of Improv Club is eligible for an office is he/she will be able to serve in the position for the full one year.

Article 4 - Elections

Section 1 – elections will be held at least once per year

Section 2 - the President is responsible for scheduling and running elections

Section 3 – offices are elected in the following order: first President, then Vice President, then Treasurer

Section 4 - voting is done by way of secret ballot. The candidate with the most votes wins (simple majority).

Section 5 – in case of a tie between one or more candidates, another vote is taken with only those candidates eligible. Repeat this process until one candidate is elected.

1